
Who is a Spooky girl?
Do you find yourself drawn to ghost stories, movie monsters, antique trinkets, or magic spells? Congratulations, you are indeed a spooky girl! Now that you know you're a little spooky, it's time to make some magic. First, find a space that feels cozy and safe. You can get a snack, a blanket, play music, or anything that makes you feel your most authentic spooky self. Next, grab whatever you like to color with- Crayons, Pencils, Pens, or Markers. Now it's time to use those magical coloring skills to bring these fellow spooky girls to life- but wait! You're not done just yet! The last page is blank. Maybe a drawing of someone coloring in their coloring book should go there. Do you know who that could be...?
